PART I – THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. OBJECTIVE

The primary purpose of the Board Charter of the Board of Directors (hereinafter referred to as “the Board”) of ConnectCounty Holdings Berhad (hereinafter referred to as “the Company”) is to outline the structure, responsibilities, rights and procedures of the Board.

The Board Charter is to guide the Directors in discharging their duties and responsibilities as Directors in accordance with the fundamental requirements of provisions in the Companies Act, 1965, Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad (“Bursa Securities”) ACE Market Listing Requirements (“ACE LR”), Capital Markets and Services Act 2007, Malaysian Code of Corporate Governance (“MCCG 2012”), any other applicable rules or regulations and the Company’s Articles of Association.

2. OVERVIEW OF DIRECTORS’ FUNCTIONS

The Board of Directors which is made up of a combination of Executive Directors (who are holding executive functions in the Company) and Non-Executive Directors (who can contribute a broader view to the Group’s activities) to take on primary responsibility for leadership of the Company, under a Chairman who accepts the duties and responsibilities that the post entails.

The Board has overall responsibility for the strategic direction and control of the Group. The day-to-day operations of the Group are delegated to the management, who reports to the Group CEO (i.e. currently, the Executive Deputy Chairman). The Group CEO would in turn report to the Board directly on issues pertaining to its operations, etc.

3. COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD

The Board should have a balance of Executive and Non-Executive Directors such that no individual or a group of individuals can dominate the Board’s decision making. For information on the current members of the Board, please refer to the Board of Directors’ Profile section, under “Board of Directors” on the Company’s corporate website at: <http://www.connectcounty.org>

There should be a clearly accepted division of responsibilities at the head of the Company in order to ensure a balance of power and authority, such that no one individual has unfettered powers of decision.

The Board shall comprise of at least 2 or 1/3 of Independent Directors, whichever is higher, in line with Bursa Securities’ ACE LR for Independent Directors’ representation on the board of listed companies.

The Non-Executive Directors should be persons of calibre, credibility and have the necessary skill and experience to bring an independent judgment to bear on the issues of strategy, performance and resources including key appointments and standards of conduct.

The Board shall exercise judgment in determining what is the appropriate number of Directors which fairly reflects the investment in the Company by shareholders other than the significant shareholder and to examine its size, with a view to determine the impact of the number upon its effectiveness.

The details of the current members of ConnectCounty Holdings Berhad's Board of Directors are mentioned in the Corporate Information section of the Company's official website: <http://www.rapidconn.org/>

5. APPOINTMENT AND TENURE OF OFFICE

- 5.1 In accordance with the Company's Articles of Association, one third of the Directors shall retire from office and be eligible for re-election at each AGM and all Directors shall retire from office once at least in each three (3) years but shall be eligible for re-election.
- 5.2 The Directors shall have the power at any time and from time to time to appoint any person to be a Director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing Directors, but so that the total number of Directors shall not any time exceed the number fixed in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association. Any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the next following AGM and shall then be eligible for re-election but shall not be taken into account in determining the Directors who are to retire by the rotation at that meeting.
- 5.3 MCCG 2012 recommended that the tenure of Independent Directors should not exceed a cumulative term of nine (9) years. Upon completion of nine (9) years, an Independent Director may continue to serve on the Board subject to the said Director's re-designation as a Non-Independent Director. The Board will, to its best endeavour, comply with the above recommendation.

6. REMUNERATION FRAMEWORK

The remuneration framework of the Board should reflect the Board's responsibilities, expertise and complexity of the Company's operations.

- 6.1 The remuneration framework for the Executive Directors is structured to attract and retain Directors of the right calibre to manage the Group effectively. Its primary purpose is to ensure that executive Directors and employees of the Group are fairly rewarded for their responsibilities, expertise and contributions towards the overall performance of the Group.
 - 6.2 The remuneration framework for the Non-Executive Directors is based on experience, degree of responsibilities, and contributions. Non-Executive Directors is paid Director's fees and meeting allowance. Directors' fees are paid within the limits approved by shareholders.
 - 6.3 The Board as a whole determines the remuneration of the Executive and Non- Executive Directors.
 - 6.4 The individual Director does not participate in decision concerning his/her own remuneration packages.
 - 6.5 The Executive Deputy Chairman's remuneration shall be reviewed by the Board.

7. INDUCTION FOR NEW DIRECTOR

Newly appointed Directors will be accorded induction programs pertaining to all (or key) aspects of the Group's business operations and environment, organisation structure/culture which includes meeting with senior management, and visits to subsidiaries.

8. BOARD PROCEDURES

The Board ordinarily has four (4) scheduled meetings annually, with additional meetings to be held between the scheduled meetings as and when necessary. In facilitating the schedule of the Directors, the Company Secretary will prepare and circulate in advance an annual meeting schedule, which includes all the proposed meeting dates for Board and Board Committee Meetings, as well as the AGM. Upon concurrence by all the Board members, the annual meeting timetable will be adopted for the applicable year. This is also in line with the recommendation of MCCG 2012 where the Board requires its members to devote sufficient time to the workings of the Board, to effectively discharge their duties as Director of the Company, and to endeavour to attend meetings.

9. RIGHTS OF DIRECTORS

- 9.1 All Board members are entitled to have full access, at reasonable times, to the advice and services of the Company Secretary who ensures that Board procedures are adhered to at all times during meetings and advises the Board on matters including corporate governance issues and Directors' responsibilities in complying with relevant legislation and regulations;
- 9.2 All Board members shall have full and unrestricted access to any information pertaining to the Company or Group; and
- 9.3 The Directors may obtain independent professional advices, where necessary, in furtherance of their duties in accordance with prescribed procedures, at the Company's expense, with prior consultation of the Chairman.

10. MATTERS RESERVED FOR THE BOARD'S DECISION

The Board shall have a formal schedule of matters specifically reserved to it for decision to ensure that the direction and control of the Company is firmly in its hands. This serves as a safeguard against misjudgements and possible acts deemed ultra vires, and contrary to the Company's or shareholders'. The schedule is updated regularly and shall include the following:

- a. Acquisitions and disposals of businesses of the Company or its subsidiaries;
- b. Acquisition and disposal of assets and / or investment which exceeds 5% of the Company's net asset;

11. INTERNAL CONTROL AND RISK MANAGEMENT

11.1 System of Risk Management and Internal Control

In order to achieve a sound system of risk management and internal control, the Board and Management is committed to adopt a risk management and control framework that is embedded into the culture, processes and structures of the Company and its subsidiaries (the “Group”).

The Board of Directors is responsible for the Group's system of risk management and internal control; and reviewing the adequacy and integrity of this system. The system of internal control can only provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance against any material misstatement or loss as it is designated to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failure to achieve the Group's business objectives.

11.2 Internal Audit Function

The Company has outsourced its internal audit functions to a third party, which will provide support to the Audit Committee in discharging its duties with regard to the adequacy and integrity of the system of internal controls within the Group.

The internal audit function will be carried out by a qualified third party who is independent of management and will report directly to the Audit Committee on matters pertaining to internal audit. The internal audit team assesses risk areas and proposes the audit program and scope to the Audit Committee. The internal audit report is tabled at the Audit Committee meeting, and presented to the Board.

Assurance from the Executive Deputy Chairman and CFO is obtained throughout the year via formal and informal inquiries, discussions and meetings that the Group's risk management and internal control systems are operating adequately and effectively, in all material aspects based on the risk management and internal control systems of the Group.

12. TIME COMMITMENT OF DIRECTORS

- 12.1 Directors are expected to devote their time to prepare themselves thoroughly for meetings for effective participation in the meetings and are expected to observe the meeting attendance requirements;
- 12.2 Pursuant to the provision of Article 109 (i) of the Company's Articles of Association, a Director who had been absent for more than 50 percent of the Board meetings held during the financial year shall automatically vacate from office, unless he/she obtains waiver from Bursa within 10 market days of the event; and

- 12.3 A Director who is unable to attend any Board or Board Committee’s meeting shall inform the Chairman or the Company Secretary immediately or give sufficient notice prior to the meeting date.

13. DIRECTORS’ TRAINING

- 13.1 The Board recognises that in order to be kept abreast with the developments of the marketplace, law and regulations and corporate governance, it is imperative to attend relevant training programmes on a continuous basis. All existing Directors would have successfully attended and successfully completed the Mandatory Accreditation Programme (“MAP”) conducted by the relevant authorities. The newly appointed Directors would also have to complete the MAP.
- 13.1 The Directors are encouraged to evaluate their own training needs on a regular basis and to determine the relevant programmes, seminars or dialogues available that would best enable them to enhance their skill and knowledge to meet new challenges and changes within the Company’s business environment.

14. BOARD COMMITTEES

The Board may delegate its responsibilities to the Board Committees and Management. However, the respective Committee’s authority must be specifically spelt out in their terms of reference. Delegation of authority shall not in any way absorb or discharge the duties and responsibilities of the Board of Directors.

There shall be an adequate degree of independence and a process or practice in place to allow the Directors to meet and actively exchange views to enable the Board to assess the direction of the Company and the performance of its Board Committees and Management.

There shall be transparency and full disclosure from the Committees to the Board. Presently the Board of Directors has formed 4 standing committees, which are the Audit, Nomination, Remuneration and Risk Management Committees.

14.1 Audit Committee

The Audit Committee shall consist of not less than three (3) members, all must be non-executive directors, with a majority of them being Independent Directors.

The Audit Committee reviews issues of accounting policy and presentation for external financial reporting, monitors the work of the internal audit function and ensures an objective and professional relationship is maintained with the external auditors. The Audit Committee has full access to both the internal and external auditors who, in turn, have access at all times to the Chairman of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee’s roles and functions are narrated in the attached Appendix A, “Terms of Reference of the Audit Committee”.

14.2 Nomination Committee

The Nomination Committee shall comprise exclusively of Non-Executive Directors.

The Nomination Committee is set up to propose new nominees for the Board and to evaluate each individual Director on an on-going basis. The Nomination Committee also seeks to ensure an optimal mix of qualification, skill and experience among the Board members. The Committee's roles and functions are indicated in the attached Appendix B, "Terms of Reference of the Nomination Committee".

14.3 Remuneration Committee

The Remuneration Committee shall comprise a majority of Independent Non-Executive Directors.

The Remuneration Committee is responsible to recommend to the Board the framework and quantum values for the Executive Directors' as well as senior management's remuneration package, terms of employments, reward structure and perks.

In general, the remuneration is structured so as to link rewards to corporate and individual performance as in the case of the Executive Directors and senior management. As for the Non-Executive Directors, the level of remuneration reflects the experience and level of responsibilities undertaken individually by the Director concerned. The Committee's roles and functions are indicated in the attached Appendix C, "Terms of Reference of the Remuneration Committee".

14.4 Risk Management Committee

The Risk Management Committee is made up of Board members, and senior management (on invitation by the Committee, and approved by the Chairman of the Board). The Committee's roles and functions are indicated in the attached Appendix D, "Terms of Reference of the Risk Management Committee".

The Risk Management Committee is responsible to highlight key risks affecting the Group (in particular, risks at Group level) to the Board.

15. INVESTOR RELATIONS AND SHAREHOLDERS' COMMUNICATION

The Board recognises the importance to have timely and equal dissemination of relevant and sufficient information on the Group's performance and activities via an appropriate channel of communication.

Shareholders, investors and analysts are kept abreast with the major developments of the Group through the various means of communications as follows, but not limited to:-

- (a) Quarterly financial statements and annual report;
- (b) Announcements on major developments and key activities made to Bursa Securities and SC; and
- (c) The Company's general meetings.

The Group maintains website at: <http://www.rapidconn.org/>, providing information on the Company and the Group's various core businesses which shareholders, investors and public may access.

16. COMPANY SECRETARY

The Company Secretary shall be a person who is qualified pursuant to Section 139A of the Companies Act, 1965 and competent in carrying his/her duties. The appointment and removal of the Company Secretary shall be decided by the Board of Directors.

The Company Secretary shall ensure statutory records are kept and maintained in a proper manner, and discharge the duties and office of Company Secretary in compliance with the prevailing legislation and regulations and in the best interest of the Company.

The Company Secretary is to provide and assist the Board, Board Committee or Director individually on matters including compliance with the prevailing legislations and regulations concerning the Company and Group as and when reasonably required.

The Company Secretary shall keep him/herself abreast with the development and new changes in relation to any legislation and regulations concerning the corporate administration and to highlight the same to the Board of Directors accordingly.

The Directors shall have unlimited access to the services of the Company Secretary.

17. CHANGES TO THE BOARD CHARTER

The Board Charter shall be reviewed annually or on an ad hoc basis by the Board, and amended and/or updated as and when necessary.

PART III – CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

DISCLOSURE OF POTENTIAL CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Pursuant to Section 131 of the Companies Act, 1965 (“the Act”), it is the duty of every Director to disclose potential conflict of interest on the following matters:

1. They have direct or indirect interest in a contract or proposed contract with the Company [Section 131 (1) of the Act]; or
2. They hold any office or possesses any property which may directly or indirectly conflict with their duties or interests as Director [Section 131 (5) of the Act].

Any possible conflict of interest on the part of any Board member should be disclosed to other Board members and an official letter shall be given, in due course or within a reasonable period, to the Company Secretary for tabling to the Board members [Section 131 (4) of the Act].

Any Board member having a possible conflict of interest on any matter should not vote or use his/her personal influence on the matter, and to abstain from discussion on the matter but he shall be counted for quorum purposes (provided none of the other Directors present disagree) (Reference: Section 130 of the Act). The minutes of the meeting should reflect that a disclosure was made, the abstention from voting, and the quorum situation.

The foregoing requirements should not be construed as preventing the Board member from briefly stating his/her position in the matter, nor from answering pertinent questions raised by other Board members since his/her knowledge may be of assistance.

The Company Secretary must record every declaration so made in the minutes of the Board meeting [Section 131 (7) of the Act].

PART IV – CORPORATE DISCLOSURE POLICY

1. OBJECTIVE

To establish a disclosure regime in promoting transparency and to attain best corporate governance practices and maintain shareholders and investors' confidence. The emphasis is to ensure that any required disclosure released by the Company is informative, timely and evenly disseminated and in compliance with the disclosure requirements of Bursa Securities ACE Market Listing Requirements ("the ACE LR").

In order to manage the accountability of sensitive, privy, confidential and/or material information, the following procedures are to be observed:

2. IMMEDIATE DISCLOSURE OF MATERIAL INFORMATION

2.1 Materiality of Transaction

Materiality of transaction is to be interpreted within the material tests and the type of transaction under Chapter 10 of the ACE LR;

2.2 Prescribed Event

Rule 9.19 of the ACE LR specifies prescribed events that require immediate announcement to be submitted upon its occurrence;

2.3 General Matters

General matter that does not fall onto the prescribed event: a materiality assessment pursuant to Rule 9.03 (2) of the LR is to be applied to determine the disclosure requirement.

An information is considered to be material if it is reasonably expected to have a material effect on the:

- (a) Price, value or market activity of any of its securities; or
- (b) Investor's decision in determining his/her choice of action.

2.4 Contents of Disclosure / Announcement

2.4.1 Accuracy and completeness of information

Contents of disclosure or announcement must be accurate and complete, easy to understand and presented in a "balanced" manner ("balanced" includes both positive and negative information). Rule 9.16 (1) of the ACE LR prescribes the following:

- (a) Be factual, unambiguous, accurate, succinct, and contains sufficient information to enable informed investment decisions;
- (b) Not be false, misleading, deceptive and must not contain language which is inflammatory, defamatory or scandalous; and
- (c) Be in language comprehensible to the layman.

2.4.2 Adequacy of information

Consideration shall also be given to the “adequacy” of the disclosure in order to provide meaningful information, for example when making disclosure on a material “transaction”: To provide a basis based on industrial comparability, Price Earnings (PE) ratio or Price to Book (PB) ratio rather than providing a general statement, i.e. “willing buyer-willing seller basis”.

2.5 Timeliness of Disclosure

Material information must be announced immediately to prevent any leakage. The Company should not subject itself to a position where it is bound by confidentiality that may defeat its obligations on disclosure of material information on immediate basis under the ACE LR.

Below are some sample of events with its required timeliness for disclosure:

Events	Timing of Announcement
Borrowing of funds	Upon acceptance of terms including execution of Letter of Offer / Loan documents, whichever is earlier
Commencement of litigation	Upon receipt of summons / statements of claim
Proposed issuance of new securities	Upon Board approval
Default in payment	Upon occurrence of default
Acquisition or disposal	Upon the terms of acquisition being agreed or upon signing of Letter of Offer / Sale and Purchase Agreement, whichever is earlier

PART V – APPENDICES

BOARD COMMITTEES’ TERMS OF REFERENCE

APPENDIX A – TERMS OF REFERENCE OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

1. DATE ESTABLISHED

The Audit Committee was established on 26 November 2005.

2. OBJECTIVES

The principal objectives of the Audit Committee (the “Committee”) are to assist the Board of Directors in discharging its statutory duties and responsibilities relating to accounting and reporting practices of the holding company and each of its subsidiaries. In addition, the Committee shall:-

- (a) evaluate the quality of the audits performed by the internal and external auditors;
- (b) provide assurance that the financial information presented by management is relevant, reliable and timely;
- (c) oversee compliance with laws and regulations and observance of a proper code of conduct;
- (d) determine the quality, adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's control environment; and
- (e) Ensure financial statements comply with applicable financial report standards.

3. COMPOSITION

The Committee shall be appointed from amongst the Board and shall comprise no fewer than three (3) members, all of whom shall be non-executive directors, with a majority of whom shall be independent directors.

All members of the Committee should be financially literate and at least one (1) member of the Committee must be:-

- (a) a member of the Malaysian Institute of Accountant (“MIA”); or
- (b) if he is not a member of MIA, he must have at least three (3) years of working experience and:
 - i. he must have passed the examinations specified in Part I of the 1st Schedule of the Accountants Act 1967; or
 - ii. he must be a member of one (1) of the associations of the accountants specified in Part II of the First Schedule of the Accountants Act 1967; or
- (c) fulfils such other requirements as prescribed by the Exchange.

No alternate director shall be appointed as a member of the Committee.

The term of office and performance of the Committee and each of its members shall be reviewed by the Nomination Committee annually to determine whether the Committee and its members have carried out their duties in accordance with their terms of reference.

4. CHAIRMAN

The members of the Committee shall elect a Chairman from amongst their number who shall be an independent director.

In the absence of the Chairman of the Committee, the other members of the Audit Committee shall amongst themselves elect a Chairman who must be an independent director to chair the meeting.

5. RETIREMENT AND RESIGNATION

If any member of the Committee retires, re-designates, resigns, dies, or for any reason ceases to be a member or Chairman resulting in non-compliance with paragraphs 2 and 3 above, the Board and the members of the Committee shall within three (3) months of the event appoint/elect such new member(s) or Chairman as may be required to fill the vacancy.

6. SECRETARIES

The Company Secretaries shall be the Secretaries of the Committee and shall be responsible, in conjunction with the Chairman, for drawing up the agenda and circulating it prior to each meeting.

7. MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet regularly, with due notice of issues to be discussed, and shall record its conclusions in discharging its duties and responsibilities. In addition, the Chairman may call for additional meetings at any time at the Chairman's discretion.

Upon the request of the external auditors, the Chairman of the Committee shall convene a meeting of the Committee to consider any matter the external auditors believe should be brought to the attention of the directors or shareholders.

Notice of Committee meetings shall be given to all the Committee members unless the Committee waives such requirement.

The Committee members may participate in a meeting by means of conference telephone, conference videophone or any similar or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Such participation in a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

The Chairman of the Committee shall engage on a continuous basis with the Chairman of the Board, senior management, such as the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer, the internal auditors and the external auditors in order to be kept informed of matters affecting the Company.

The Chief Financial Officer and a representative of the internal and external auditors respectively should normally attend meetings. Other Board members and employees may attend meetings upon the invitation of the Committee. The Committee shall be able to convene meetings with the external auditors, the internal auditors or both, without executive Board members or employees present whenever deemed necessary and at least twice a year with the external auditors.

Questions arising at any meeting of the Committee shall be decided by a majority of votes of the members present, and in the case of equality of votes, the Chairman of the Committee shall have a second or casting vote.

8. MINUTES

Minutes of each meeting shall be kept at the registered office and distributed to each member of the Audit Committee and also to the other members of the Board. The Committee Chairman shall report on the proceeding of each meeting to the Board.

The minutes of the Committee meeting shall be signed by the Chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings were held or by the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting.

The Audit Committee members may inspect the minutes of the Audit Committee at the Registered Office or such other place as may be determined by the Audit Committee.

9. QUORUM

The quorum for the Committee meeting shall be the majority of members present whom must be independent directors.

10. CIRCULAR RESOLUTION

A resolution in writing signed by a majority of the Committee members for the time being shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Committee duly called and constituted. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one (1) or more Committee members. Any such document may be accepted as sufficiently signed by an Committee member if transmitted to the Company by telex, telegram, cable, facsimile or other electrical or digital written message to include a signature of a Committee member.

11. REPORTING

The Committee shall report to the Board of Directors, either formally in writing, or verbally, as it considers appropriate on the matters within its terms of reference at least once a year, but more frequently if it so wishes.

The Committee shall report to the Board of Directors on any specific matters referred to it by the Board for investigation and report.

12. AUTHORITY

The Committee shall, in accordance with a procedure to be determined by the Board of Directors and at the expense of the Company,

- (a) have explicit authority to investigate any activity within its terms of reference, the resources to do so, and full access to information. All employees shall be directed to co-operate as requested by members of the Committee;
- (b) have full and unlimited/unrestricted access to all information and documents/resources which are required to perform its duties as well as to the internal and external auditors and senior management of the Company and Group;
- (c) obtain, at the expense of the Company, other independent professional advice or other advice and to secure the attendance of outsiders with relevant experience and expertise if it considers necessary;
- (d) have direct communication channels with the internal and external auditors and person(s) carrying out the internal audit function or activity (if any); and
- (e) where the Audit Committee is of the view that the matter reported by it to the Board has not been satisfactorily resolved resulting in a breach of the ACE Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad (“Bursa Securities”), the Committee shall promptly report such matter to Bursa Securities.

13. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The duties and responsibilities of the Committee are as follows:-

- (a) To consider the appointment and/or re-appointment of the internal auditors and external auditors, the audit fee and any questions of resignation or dismissal including recommending the nomination of person(s) as auditors;
- (b) To establish policies governing the circumstances under which contracts for the provision of non-audit services can be entered into and procedures that must be followed by the external auditors;
- (c) To discuss with the external auditors before the audit commences, the nature and scope of the audit, and ensure co-ordination where more than one (1) audit firm is involved;
- (d) To review with the external auditors on:-
 - the audit plan, its scope and nature;
 - the audit report;
 - the results of their valuation of the accounting policies and systems of internal accounting controls within the Group; and
